

Waiving of GEDA registration fees of Rs. 1000/-- + service Tax for the applicant of Residential Rooftop Solar PV System

Gujarat Energy Development Agency (GEDA), A state Nodal Agency of Government of Gujarat is implementing the Residential Rooftop Solar PV System (RRSS) installation scheme declared by Government of Gujarat during 2016 -17.

To popularize, promote and motivate residential consumers of the state who intend to install the Residential Rooftop Solar PV system under the GOG scheme during 2016 - 17, The Governing body of GEDA in its meeting held on 29 th September, 2016 has approved to waive off the of the application registration charges of Rs. 1000/- + service tax (Rs. 1150/-) from the applicant of RRSS as an incentive to the beneficiaries..

The application money of the old applicants who had earlier applied to GEDA and paid application registration fees along with RRSS application and whose receipts are already issued by GEDA will be refunded in due course of time.

Moreover, EAs and MNRE channel partners are now requested NOT to collect the GEDA application registration fee from the new RRSS applicant. Further, if EAs have already collected the money / cheque from the applicant but not yet submitted the same to GEDA may return the money / cheque to the applicant immediately.
